*Let this bulletin be your guide through the service;
it includes everything you need.*

Prelude

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

All Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Joshua 24:1-3a, 14-25

Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and summoned the elders, the heads, the judges, and the officers of Israel; and they presented themselves before God. And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Long ago your ancestors—Terah and his sons Abraham and Nahor—lived beyond the Euphrates and served other gods. Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the River and led him through all the land of Canaan and made his offspring many.

"Now therefore revere the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness; put away the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD. Now if you are unwilling to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served in the region beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living; but as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."

Then the people answered, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods; for it is the LORD our God who brought us and our ancestors up from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, and who did those great signs in our sight. He protected us along all the way that we went, and among all the peoples through whom we passed; and the LORD drove out before us all the peoples, the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore we also will serve the LORD, for he is our God."

But Joshua said to the people, "You cannot serve the LORD, for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions or your sins. If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you harm, and consume you, after having done you good." And the people said to Joshua, "No, we will serve the LORD!" Then Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD, to serve him." And they said, "We are witnesses." He said, "Then put away the foreign gods that are among you, and incline your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel." The people said to Joshua, "The LORD our God we will serve, and him we will obey." So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made statutes and ordinances for them at Shechem.

Psalm 78:1-7

Attendite, popule

BCP 694

- 1 Hear my teaching, O my people; *
 incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
- 2 I will open my mouth in a parable; *
 I will declare the mysteries of ancient times.
- 3 That which we have heard and known,
 and what our forefathers have told us, *
 we will not hide from their children.
- 4 We will recount to generations to come the praiseworthy deeds and the power of the LORD, *
 and the wonderful works he has done.
- 5 He gave his decrees to Jacob and established a law for Israel, *
 which he commanded them to teach their children;
- 6 That the generations to come might know,
 and the children yet unborn; *
 that they in their turn might tell it to their children;
- 7 So that they might put their trust in God, *
 and not forget the deeds of God,
 but keep his commandments;

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

The Gospel

Matthew 25:1-13

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them; but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a shout, 'Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise replied, 'No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.' And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet; and the door was shut. Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.' Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Rev. John Kellogg

Prayers of the People *

Leader: God of grace, bless all those who seek after you who gather in holy spaces around the world to worship and be fed by you. We seek that we might hear your call to give to the world as you have given to us – generously, joyfully, and with unending grace.

We pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: God of abundance, be present to us as we enjoy the bounty that is in our lives. Keep us aware of and thankful for your gifts, and help us to generously share them with others in the world and in our lives. Mold us and our leaders as stewards of our abundance that you may be honored with every gift you have entrusted to our care.

We pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Generous God, give us hearts to hear the cries of those in need around the world and in our own country, particularly those suffering hardship as a result of COVID-19. Open our eyes to famine, disease, tragedy, and violence that are everyday occurrences in the lives of so many. Lead us to action within the capability of each one of us.

We pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: God of faithfulness, our community faces many challenges, including the pandemic. Guide us by your light to use the offerings of the people, the resources you have entrusted to us, to speak your peace in the midst of these challenges.

We pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Great healer, pour out your spirit upon all who suffer, that each may know the power and mystery of your presence in our lives, especially upon those we now name.

We pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: God of new life, welcome those who have died, that each may live eternally in your peace, especially those we now name.

We pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant: I invite your prayers of petition and thanksgiving.

Celebrant: Abundant God, you made us in your image and breathed in us a spirit of generosity. Open our hearts that we may care for and nurture one another. Open our hands, Lord, that we may serve you and your people with our skills, our time, and our resources. And in your good time, Lord, open the doors of this church that we may warmly welcome all who walk through our doors. In the name of the Three in whom we are One, Amen.

Prayer of Confession

Enriching Our Worship 1, adapted

Celebrant Let us confess our sins to God.

All Loving God, our Creator, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive and restore us through Jesus Christ our Savior, and strengthen us by the Holy Spirit our Sustainer, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Offertory

Celebrant Let us with gladness present the offerings and oblations of our life and labor to the Lord.

Music

All are invited to support Christ Church's ministry of sharing God's love with the world by contributing using one of the many options available.

(Christ Church Giving QR Code.)

Please see the back of the bulletin for links and more information.

At the presentation:

Celebrant All things come of thee O Lord,
People And of thine own have we given thee.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

BCP 364

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Blessing

(from A Prayer Book for Australia)

Celebrant God who has called you is faithful. Go into the world with joy, forgive generously, love extravagantly, live abundantly. And the blessing of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be upon you now and for ever. Amen.

Dismissal

Liturgist Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
All Thanks be to God.

The Church Office and Building are currently closed for the COVID-19 shutdown.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

We will continue to host in-person worship on Sundays in November on the church front lawn, weather permitting. Registration is required as well as a signed Covenant for Regathering in Worship letter. The service will include communion (bread only) and Children's Chapel with Rev. Mary Miller Flowers. Please dress warmly, bring a chair, blanket (grass will be wet) or be prepared to stand for the service. Enter through the front entrance (G St) and please check in with an usher. The parking lot will be available, but we request that you walk through the alley. The building will only be open for handicap access and emergency restroom use. If the service is canceled due to increment weather, an email and Facebook post will be sent at 8am on Sunday morning. We are collecting nonperishable food to donate to a local food pantry; donated food can be placed in the bin on the lawn.

Stewardship Season - Moving Forward: As we begin our stewardship season, we recognize that it has been a challenging year for all of us, individually and as a Christ Church community. We have met this challenge in many ways: developing ways to keep connected, learning to use Zoom and Facebook for worship, participating in Outreach, and staying safe. We have managed this with your generosity and participation and are grateful. Next year will also present challenges, but we move forward under Rev. John Kellogg's leadership and together we will engage our creativity and sense of community as a source of nurture and joy. We urge you to prayerfully and generously make your pledge of financial support and commitment. You may pledge online at <https://washingtonparish.org/ministries/stewardship/> or mail in the pledge card you received in the mail. Thank you to the 35 households who have pledged already for a total of $187,710 toward our goal of $400,000. This is a very strong start to our campaign, and we are very grateful.

Young Adult Personal Finance Class through Episcopal Diocese of Washington: The diocese is offering a free personal finance class on two consecutive Saturdays, November 14 & 21, from 10am to Noon, called Faith & Finance for Young Adults to discuss and explore how Faith &

Finance intersect with specific strategies and practical applications. A course description and registration are on the Eventbrite page above.

Thanksgiving Service, Thursday, November 26, 11am: We will stream a pre-recorded worship service at 11am on Thanksgiving on Facebook; however, we will not be able to host the annual pot lunch dinner after the service. We hope to resume this tradition next year but hope you will tune in to watch the worship service. The video will be available here:

https://www.facebook.com/ChristChurchDC/videos/?ref=page_internal

Please sign & return Covenant for Regathering in Worship letter. If you have not signed the Covenant for Regathering in Worship letter, please sign and return it to the Church Office as soon as possible. This letter is a REQUIREMENT from the Episcopal Diocese of Washington. All parishioners must agree with the Covenant and the Christ Church Office must have a copy of the signed letter on file before we begin in-person worship. You can find a copy of the letter here (and on our website under “Re-opening Resources & Information.”)

Formation and Fellowship

Friday Film Series, November 13, 7pm: The Friday Film Series resumes on November 13 with Dead Poets Society (1989). Please watch the movie on your own and join the discussion via Zoom. All are welcome to participate.

Sacred Ground dialogue at Christ Church begins Thurs., Nov. 19, 7pm: Sacred Ground is a film- and readings-based dialogue series on race, grounded in faith. Small groups are invited to walk through chapters of America’s history of race and racism, while weaving in threads of family story, economic class, and political and regional identity. The 10-part series is built around a powerful online curriculum of documentary films and readings that focus on Indigenous, Black, Latino, and Asian/Pacific American histories as they intersect with European American histories. Sacred Ground is part of Becoming Beloved Community, The Episcopal Church’s long-term commitment to racial healing, reconciliation, and justice in our personal lives, our ministries, and our society. This series is open to all adults, and especially designed to help white people talk with other white people. Participants are invited to peel away the layers that have contributed to the challenges and divides of the present day – all while grounded in our call to faith, hope and love.

The group at Christ Church will begin Thursday, Nov 19th at 7pm and continue on a bi-weekly schedule through the spring (with some breaks for holidays). It requires a commitment to readings, films and participation in the group. Please email Mary Miller Flowers or Jennifer Baker Howard if you are interested in joining. For more information, visit

<https://episcopalchurch.org/sacred-ground>

Adult Forum Continues through Nov. 22, 10am, via Zoom: The Rev. Rob Banse continues the Adult Forum series on Sundays at 10am via Zoom through Nov. 22 with the exploration of the message of the prophets. The proposed topics are:

- November 15 and 22 - the Old Testament readings for the first three Sundays of Advent Year B are Isaiah 64:1-9a, Isaiah 40:1-11, and Isaiah 65:17-25 respectively. We will discuss Isaiah's promise of a Messiah who will bring salvation to the people of Israel. We will use this to explore the prophetic ministry of Jesus of Nazareth.

All are welcome to join in. Participants are encouraged to read these passages prior to the discussion but this is not absolutely necessary. (Hosea and Micah are only 14 and 9 chapters long.)

Saturday Morning Men's Spirituality Group, 9am: A long-standing Christ Church tradition, the Saturday Morning Men's Spirituality Group meets every Saturday at 9am for conversation and reflection. Weather permitting, the group has been gathering outside in the church courtyard for a socially distanced, in-person meeting.

Children and Family Ministries

In person Children's Chapel, 9am, Church Front Lawn: As part of the in-person worship service on the front lawn on Sundays at 9am, Rev. Mary Miller Flowers will lead in-person Children's Chapel during the service. Weather permitting, we continue to offer Children's Chapel in-person at the 9am service until the weather is too cold/wet to host on the front lawn, then we will resume meeting via Zoom. The Sunday School will continue to meet at 10am via Zoom. We hope you will pick a service that works best for you and your family and join us.

Sunday School for grades 3rd – 5th (and older children welcome) will meet at 10am via Zoom for 40 minutes to focus on the stories of Jesus.

Zoom Link for Sunday School for 3rd – 5th grade is here:

Seeking Volunteers for Sunday School and Children's Chapel: Rev. Mary Miller Flowers is seeking volunteers to assist with programming for children from age 3 years old through 5th grade +. A variety of volunteers are needed for the children's activities. Please contact Mary if you are willing to assist and she will send a Google Sign Up Sheet to you. Activities will be both in person (outside) and via Zoom so please indicate for which you are available to help.

Outreach, Serving the Community

Calvary Women's Shelter: We want to thank our October and November volunteers for preparing Sunday suppers for the women in transitional housing provided by Calvary Women's Services. Thank you to the October volunteers: Barbara and Del Crandall; Sandy Hussey; Lisa Nickerson; and Kirsten Sloan; and the November volunteers: Nancy Broers; Barbara and Del Crandall; Ruth Kroeger; Lisa Nickerson; Nelson Rimensnyder; and Lauren Welsh.

Nonperishable Food Drive: We are currently asking for parishioners to contribute nonperishable food items to be donated to one of our Outreach partners who distributes the food to those in need. Food that is high in protein (peanut butter, canned meats such as tuna fish) as well as canned vegetables and fruit are deeply appreciated. There is a storage tote in the church courtyard (entrance from the parking lot) where you can drop off the food throughout the week or you can bring the nonperishable food to the Sunday 9am worship services. There will be a bin on the front lawn during the service for contact-less dropoff. Anything you can contribute is greatly appreciated.

Support Everyone Home DC's Families This Thanksgiving: This Fall, while everything continues to look very different, Everyone Home DC is committed to ensuring that the families will have the flexibility to celebrate Thanksgiving in a meaningful way. Everyone Home DC is shifting this year's model to collect $50 grocery gift cards and monetary donations. Their goal is to distribute a gift card to each family that works with Everyone Home DC, which means they will need 150 $50 gift cards to distribute to families by November 12. This gift card drive replaces the food basket drive Christ Church normally does in support of Everyone Home DC. For more information, please visit their website: <https://everyonehomedc.org/thanksgiving-is-almost-here/> Collecting Supplies for Families in Local Housing Projects: Little Lights, the NGO that supports families in Hopkins and Potomac Gardens Housing Projects here in the church neighborhood, is collecting groceries, non-perishables, masks, and household cleaning supplies for families there. Little Lights needs the following items or monetary donations on their website: masks or handmade masks, soap (bar or liquid), hand sanitizer, Lysol and other disinfecting sprays/wipes, lotion, gloves, toilet paper or flushable wipes, paper towels, and non-perishable food. They also have an Amazon wishlist of snacks that they need for the clients they serve. You can order and ship directly to Little Lights: <https://smile.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/3695WRKVRX9K4> Additionally Rev. Mary Miller Flowers has offered to serve as a dropoff point at her house (around the corner from the church) at 508 7th St SE). You can contact Rev. Mary to coordinate dropoff at formation@washingtonparish.org.

Christmas Gift Card Drive for Everyone Home DC: The winter holiday season is right around the corner and YOU can ensure Everyone Home DC families experience a joyful holiday by supporting Everyone Home DC's efforts to distribute gift cards to families during these times of uncertainty. This year Everyone Home DC (EHDC) will collect and distribute gift cards to families in most need during these uncertain times. Based on the family size, EHDC will provide gift cards valued between $150 and $500. Please contribute by December 1 so EHDC can distribute the gift cards to families the week of December 7 to allow enough time to shop before the Christmas holiday. Please consider purchasing a gift card from Target, Old Navy, TJ Maxx, Marshalls, Amazon, Homegoods, DSW, Foot Locker or make a donation of any size on the Everyone Home DC website. Every little bit helps. A gift of any size is appreciated, please consider donating in \$50 increments today! If that is too much for your budget, you can also purchase gift cards in smaller values, like $10, to Subway, Dunkin Donuts, Chiptole, Chick Fil A, McDonald's, 7Eleven. Please mail gift cards to Everyone Home DC Development Office, 415 2nd Street NE, 3rd Floor, Washington DC 20002 by December 1. Please contact Kate at akalonu@everyonehomedc.org if you have any questions or to coordinate a drop-off. Please note: For the health and safety of guests and staff at Shirley's Place, we will not be accepting gift card drop-offs at our drop-in day center, which has historically been the location for drop-offs in the past. Thank you for understanding.*
