Prelude

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

All Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

When the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here; for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel. The company of prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD will take your master away from you?" And he said, "Yes, I know; keep silent."

Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here; for the LORD has sent me to Jericho." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho. The company of prophets who were at Jericho drew near to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD will take your master away from you?" And he answered, "Yes, I know; be silent."

Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here; for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So the two of them went on. Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan. Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground.

When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you." Elisha said, "Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit." He responded, "You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not." As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven. Elisha kept watching and crying out, "Father, father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!" But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

People	Thanks be to God.

Psalm 50: 1-6

Deus deorum

BCP 654

- 1 The LORD, the God of gods, has spoken; *
he has called the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.
- 2 Out of Zion, perfect in its beauty, *
God reveals himself in glory.

- 3 Our God will come and will not keep silence; *
 before him there is a consuming flame,
 and round about him a raging storm.
- 4 He calls the heavens and the earth from above *
 to witness the judgment of his people.
- 5 "Gather before me my loyal followers, *
 those who have made a covenant with me
 and sealed it with sacrifice."
- 6 Let the heavens declare the rightness of his cause; *
 for God himself is judge.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 4:3-6

Even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Reader	The Word of the Lord.
People	Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Mark 9:2-9

Celebrant	The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
People	Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, "This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!" Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus.

As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

At the presentation:

Celebrant All things come of thee O Lord,
People And of thine own have we given thee.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.
AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

BCP 364

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
Therefore let us keep the feast.
The gifts of God, for the people of God.

Prayer after Communion

BCP 365

Let us pray.
Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members
of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ,
and you have fed us with spiritual food

in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage
to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing

Dismissal

Liturgist Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
All Thanks be to God.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

A Stewardship Message from the Rector

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

It was nice to see many of you on Zoom for our Annual Meeting this past Sunday.

The co-chairs of our Stewardship Committee, Anne Fletcher and Andrea Harles, shared with us the wonderful news that we have received 108 pledges totaling $441,881. This is the largest amount ever pledged to Christ Church!

Much is still uncertain about that state of our world. At Christ Church we do not know when outside groups will be able to safely rent our space again and what type of financial impact that will have on our budget. However, your pledged commitment to Christ Church provides us with strong footing as we begin the year. Thank you so much for your devotion to our church and for your belief in our future.

As I shared during our meeting, my goals for this year include:

- Building a hybrid church that flourishes both in-person and online,
- Further investing in ministries focused on children and families, and

- Increasing our visibility to our neighborhood, the emerging Navy Yard neighborhood and Capitol Hill East.

I will continue working to build a healthy staff and leadership structure to support these ministries. When it is safe for us to gather again for worship, I will be excited to share that with you.

I am grateful everyday to serve as your Rector. As we make our journey into 2021, lets work hard to ensure that Christ Church is a place of radical welcome — where people of all races, ages, gender identities, sexual orientations and politics know they have a place. We have a precious responsibility to be Jesus’ hands and feet and voice here on Capitol Hill.

Faithfully,
John +

Mardi Gras Celebration, Tues. Feb. 16, 6:30: Join us on Tuesday, February 16, 6:30pm-8pm for a virtual Mardi Gras party! Instead of our traditional pancake supper, we will send out “supply” bags with everything you need to make Mardi Gras masks and some sweet treats to celebrate the last day before Lent. We will play some Mardi Gras trivia while we make masks and eat, and then learn a bit about the transition from Shrove Tuesday to Ash Wednesday. All ages are welcome. Please register here to receive the Zoom link to participate in the fun.

Ash Wednesday Services, Wed. Feb. 17: Due to the ongoing pandemic, the Ash Wednesday services will be held virtually on Wednesday, February 17 at 7:30am and 7pm. We will not be able to perform the imposition of ashes due to needing to be socially distanced. Please join us at 7:30am via Zoom (link below) and at 7pm via Facebook Live (@ChristChurchDC) or on our website (WashingtonParish.org/Watch). All are welcome as we begin the observation of the Lent season.

2020 Contribution Statements: Tax receipts for 2020 contributions will be sent via email by the end of the month. You can access your statement by logging into your account on the church database (www.onrealm.org) and look for the button “2020 Contribution Statement” on the right side of the main information page and/or on the “Giving” page. You can either print the statement as a hard copy or download the statement as a PDF (or do both). If you have questions about your gift, please contact financial volunteer Ruth Pontius at ruthpontius@aol.com or Jennifer Baker Howard, Parish Life & Office Manager at office@washingtonparish.org.

What is a Photo Directory Without Photos? In attempting to update the Parish Directory, we have many missing or outdated photos of our members and children. Please take a moment to log into your account on the church database (onrealm.org) and update your photo and your family (if applicable). A few instructions: there are 2 tabs on the photo image - the first tab is a photo for the individual and the second tab is for the family image. If you are a single household, please copy the photo in both tabs as the Family Directory is pre-programmed to print only the SECOND tab. There is a zoom in and out feature to the right of the photo to size the image over the photo to focus primarily on the face(s). We will have a new Parish Directory by the beginning of March and will have it available as an electronic, PDF document. If you want a paper copy, arrangements will need to be made for contactless pick up at the church (details to follow).

Picking Up Consecrated Communion Wafers, Saturdays, 10am – 11am: The Eucharistic Prayer has returned to the service and each Saturday morning from 10am – 11am consecrated communion wafers are available for pick-up via the courtyard behind the church (entrance from the church parking lot). You may pick up a supply (such as a month's worth) for your household to avoid weekly visits. Gluten-free wafers will also be available for pick-up. COVID Safety: the wafers will be consecrated and put into sealed envelopes with the clergy and liturgists wearing masks and gloves. All parishioners are required to wear masks when they pick up the wafers and will not be permitted to enter the building. If you cannot come to the church or need to make other arrangements for pick-up, please contact Gary Abrecht at garyabrecht@gmail.com.

Formation and Fellowship

Lenten Film Festival Begins Friday, February 19, 7pm: Join us online on Friday, February 19 at 7 pm as we begin our six-week Lenten film discussion series, this year celebrating the themes of joy and resilience. Our February 19 discussion will be led by parishioner Norm Metzger, as Norm will talk about his youth in Nazi Germany and then help guide us through a discussion of our movie, An American Rhapsody. Norm grew up in Nazi Germany from 1937 to 1945 (through 9 years of age). His Jewish father fled to the US with Norm's sister while Norm and his Lutheran mother remained in Germany. The movie, An American Rhapsody, starring Nastassja Kinski and Scarlet Johansson, tells the true story of a Hungarian girl from infancy to age 15 and is based on the life of writer/director Eva Gardos. Her birth parents and older sister fled Stalin controlled Hungary for the US in 1950, leaving her behind. Our movie discussion on February 26 will be led by our rector, Father Kellogg. John will talk about his father's drug addiction and its impact on his family, then help guide us in a discussion of the featured movie, Rachel Getting Married, starring Anne Hathaway as a woman released from rehab for a few days to attend her sister's wedding. Watch the movies on your own, then join us to hear the life stories of fellow parishioners and see how those stories illuminate our featured movies. Each night's discussion stands on its own, so join us for some or all discussions. All are welcome.
